

Disclaimer statement for participants

- I promise that the content of my session(s) will not be in any way defamatory or offensive.
- I acknowledge and agree that the personal data I provide to Informa Markets will be processed in accordance with the following Privacy Policy (<https://www.informa.com/privacy-policy/>);
- I hereby agree irrevocably to grant Informa Markets the right to make visual and/or audio recordings of my lecture or presentation at the event and to grant them the rights of use to any contents provided by me (including my professional experience profile, photo and any other documents, except of the pitch deck that will be used only to participate at Global Innovation Forum) as follows:
  - right to reproduction, including editing, and distribution of copies, making available to the public, broadcasting, reproduction by means of visual or audio media and reproduction by means of radio broadcasts and/or making available to the public, in particular the distribution as print or digital material to the press, to persons involved in the organization of the event and to marketing partners,
  - non-exclusive rights of use to any contents provided by me and exclusive rights of use to visual and/or audio recordings.
  - submission of audio recordings of the session to the CPD UK as part of the CPD application.
- I acknowledge that this release is legally binding. I understand that it is perpetual and that I may not revoke it.